Quaker Houghton Recognized on Newsweek's 2023 List of America's Most Responsible Companies

CONSHOHOCKEN, PA (December 14, 2022) /PRNewswire/ – Quaker Houghton (NYSE: KWR), the global leader in industrial process fluids, has been named one of America's Most Responsible Companies for a second consecutive year. The list, presented by Newsweek and global research firm Statista, Inc., evaluates the top 2,000 U.S. based public companies and recognizes the top 500 across 14 industry subcategories. America's Most Responsible Companies were selected based on publicly available environmental, social and governance performance indicators derived from sustainability reports and an independent perception survey.

Andy Tometich, Quaker Houghton's Chief Executive Officer and President stated, "We are honored to once again be recognized for our commitment to corporate responsibility. Sustainability is core to how we operate our business and essential to drive long-term value for all stakeholders."
