

QUAKER HOUGHTON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

The following guidelines, along with Quaker Chemical Corporation (“Quaker Houghton’s”) Articles of Incorporation, By-laws and Charters of the Board Committees, provide the governance framework in which Quaker Houghton’s Board of Directors carries out its fiduciary duties.

1. The Board and Management. Quaker Houghton’s business is conducted by its colleagues, managers and officers, under the direction of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the oversight of the Board, to enhance the long-term value of Quaker Houghton for its shareholders. The Board of Directors stands in a fiduciary relation to the corporation and, in discharging these fiduciary duties, Directors shall act in a manner that they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the corporation, in particular, the interests of the shareholders. The Board may, in considering the best interests of the corporation, also take into account the effect of any action upon colleagues, suppliers, customers, the communities in which operations are established, and other pertinent factors.

2. Functions of the Board. The Board of Directors meets not less than five times a year to review and discuss reports by management on the performance of the corporation, its plans and strategies, as well as immediate issues facing the corporation. Directors are expected to attend all scheduled Board and Committee meetings. In addition to its general oversight of management and of the conduct of the corporation’s business, the Board performs the following specific functions:

- a. considering, approving, and monitoring fundamental financial and business strategies and major corporate actions;
- b. selecting, evaluating, and determining the compensation of the CEO and overseeing the compensation of the other senior executives;
- c. planning for succession with respect to the position of CEO and monitoring management’s succession planning for other senior executives;
- d. assessing major risks facing the corporation and reviewing options for their mitigation and/or elimination; and
- e. working with senior management to ensure standards and procedures are in place for maintaining the integrity of the corporation, the accuracy of the corporation’s financial statements, and the compliance by the corporation with laws and the corporation’s Code of Business Conduct and Financial Code of Ethics.

The Board of Directors has delegated to the CEO, working with the other senior executives of Quaker Houghton and its affiliates, the authority for managing the business consistent with applicable policies, including the corporation’s Code of Business Conduct and Financial Code of Ethics, and any specific directives from the Board.

3. Qualifications. Directors shall possess the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity, and, in performance of their duties as directors, shall represent the long-term interests of the shareholders. Directors are selected on the basis of experience and personal capacities, including experience in industries similar to Quaker Houghton's, managerial or other leadership experience; business acumen or particular expertise, business development experience, strategic capability, independence of judgment; familiarity with corporate governance, risk assessment and the responsibilities of directors; standing and reputation as a person of integrity; the potential contribution of each individual to the diversity of backgrounds, experience and competencies which the Governance Committee desires to have represented and ability to work constructively with the CEO and the Board. Directors must devote sufficient time to carrying out their duties and responsibilities effectively, and should be committed to serving on the Board for an extended period of time. Directors are expected to inform the Chair if there is any significant change in their personal circumstances, including a change in their principal job responsibilities. Directors are expected to attend meetings of the Board and Committees of the Board on which they serve, except for good reason, and be prepared.

Directors who also serve as CEOs or in equivalent positions should not serve on more than three boards of public companies in addition to the Quaker Houghton Board, and other Directors should not serve on more than four other boards of public companies in addition to the Quaker Houghton Board. Directors are expected to notify the Chair of the Governance Committee before they accept membership on the board of another company, public or private, and may not accept the position if the Governance Committee objects. The Board does not believe that arbitrary term limits on Directors' service are appropriate nor does it believe that Directors should expect to be renominated annually until they reach the mandatory retirement age. The Board self-evaluation process noted below will be an important determinant for Board tenure. No individuals will be nominated for election to the Board after their 72nd birthday.

4. Independence of Directors. A majority of the Directors shall be affirmatively determined by the Board to have no material relationship with Quaker Houghton, either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Quaker Houghton based on the guidelines set forth below. Not more than three individuals who fail to be determined to be independent Directors shall serve on the Board at any one time, provided, however, that this limitation on the number of non-independent directors shall not require a Director to resign or retire from the Board prior to the expiration of a term to which he or she was duly elected by the shareholders so long as the Board then has a majority of independent Directors. (Currently, 9 Directors serving on the Board are independent per the guidelines set forth below.)

The Board has established the following guidelines for determining Director independence:

- a. A Director will not be independent if, within the preceding five years: (i) the Director was an executive officer of Quaker Houghton; (ii) the Director was an executive officer of an acquired company; or (iii) an immediate family member of the Director was employed by Quaker Houghton as an executive officer.
- b. A Director will not be independent if the Director is a former CEO of Quaker Houghton, provided however, past service as interim CEO for a period of less than 18 months shall not preclude a determination of independence.
- c. A Director will not be independent if, within the preceding three years: (i) the Director was employed by Quaker Houghton; (ii) the Director was employed by, or affiliated with, Quaker Houghton's present or former internal or external auditor; (iii) an immediate family member of the Director was employed or affiliated with, Quaker Houghton's present or former internal or external auditor; or (iv) the Director, or an immediate family member of the Director, is employed as an executive officer of a company where a Quaker Houghton executive officer serves on that company's compensation committee.

- d. A Director will not be independent if, within the preceding three years: (i) a company that employs the Director as an executive officer or employee, or an immediate family member of the Director as an executive officer, has made payments to, or received payments from, Quaker Houghton for goods and services in any year in an amount which exceeds the greater of $1,000,000 or 2% of the consolidated gross revenues of such company; or (ii) a Director or an immediate family member of the Director receives direct compensation from Quaker Houghton in excess of $120,000 in any 12-month period (other than compensation for services on the Board and Committees of the Board).
- e. The following commercial or charitable relationships will not be considered to be material relationships that would preclude the Board from making an affirmative determination that an individual Director is independent: (i) if a Director is an executive officer of another company which is indebted to Quaker Houghton, or to which Quaker Houghton is indebted, and the total amount of either company's indebtedness to the other is less than 1% of the total consolidated assets of the company where the Director serves as an executive officer; and (ii) if a Director serves as an officer, director or trustee of a charitable organization, and Quaker Houghton's discretionary charitable contributions to the charitable organization are less than the greater of $250,000 or 2% of that organization's total annual gross revenues in any single year over the preceding three years. (Amounts contributed by Quaker Houghton pursuant to its automatic matching of employee charitable contributions will not be included in the amount of Quaker Houghton's contributions for purposes of applying this guideline.)
- f. The Board will annually review all commercial and charitable relationships of Directors. To facilitate this review, each non-employee Director will annually provide information regarding the Director's business and other relationships with Quaker Houghton, its affiliates and senior management to enable the Board to evaluate the Director's independence. This determination will be disclosed in the proxy statement for Quaker Houghton's annual meeting of shareholders.
- g. For relationships not covered by the guidelines in subsections (a) through (e) above, the determination of whether the relationship is material or not, and, therefore, whether the Director would be independent or not, shall be made by the Directors who satisfy the independence guidelines set forth above and are not parties to such relationship.

5. Size of Board and Selection Process. The Board (currently 10 members) is divided into three classes, which are as equal as possible in size. One class of Directors is elected each year by the shareholders at the annual meeting of shareholders. Each member of the Board is elected for a term of three years. This staggered election of Directors helps maintain continuity and provides stability to the work of the Board. It ensures that at least a majority of Directors at all times will have an in-depth knowledge of the corporation. The Board believes that the classified Board format assists its role in strategic planning, which is critical to the future success of the corporation. The Board proposes a slate of nominees to the shareholders for election to the Board. Shareholders may propose nominees for consideration by the Governance Committee by submitting the names and supporting information according to the deadlines set forth in the corporation's proxy statement for its most recent annual meeting to: Secretary, Quaker Houghton, 901 E. Hector Street, Conshohocken, PA 19428-2380. Between annual shareholder meetings, the Board may elect Directors to serve until the next annual meeting.

6. Board Meeting Agendas. The Chair and the CEO shall work jointly to establish the agenda for each Board meeting, and any Director may request items to be included on the agenda. Ample time is scheduled for each Board meeting to assure full discussion of important matters whether included on the agenda or not. Agendas always include financial and operating reports in addition to other reports, such as business unit and subject matter presentations, that could enhance a Director's perspective and knowledge on various matters. Agenda and meeting materials are distributed in advance of Board and Committee meetings, and each Director has a duty to review the materials prior to the meeting.

7. Board Committees. The Board has established the following Committees to assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities: (i) Audit Committee; (ii) Compensation and Human Resources Committee; (iii) Governance Committee; and (iv) Sustainability Committee. All members of the Committees of the Board serve at the pleasure of the Board. The current charters of these Committees are published on Quaker Houghton's website and will be mailed to shareholders upon written request. The Committee Chairs report the highlights of their meetings to the full Board following each meeting of the respective Committee.

8. Independence of Committee Members. Current membership of the Audit, Compensation and Human Resources Committee, and Governance Committees satisfies the independence requirements discussed in Section 4 above. Members of the Audit Committee and the Compensation and Human Resources Committee are each also required to satisfy certain additional NYSE independence requirements.

9. Executive Sessions of Independent Directors. Time will be regularly scheduled for the independent Directors to meet as a group. The Chair will preside at all Executive Sessions of the independent Directors.

10. Board and Committee Evaluations. The Board and each of the Committees shall perform annual self-evaluations. The Governance Committee will develop and conduct the Board evaluation and will ensure that each Committee of the Board conducts its own self-evaluation.

11. Ethics and Conflicts of Interest. The Board expects Quaker Houghton Directors, as well as officers and colleagues, to act ethically at all times and to affirm their adherence to the policies composing Quaker Houghton's Code of Business Conduct and Financial Code of Ethics including, without limitation, a prohibition on trading on inside information. The Board must approve any waiver of the code for senior executives or Directors, and any such waiver must be promptly disclosed to shareholders in accordance with relevant laws and NYSE listing rules. If an actual or potential conflict of interest arises for a Director, the Director will promptly inform the Chair of the Board who will bring the matter to the attention of the Board. If a significant conflict exists and cannot be resolved, the Director is expected to resign. Each Director will recuse himself or herself from any discussion or decision affecting his or her personal, business or professional interests. The Board shall resolve any ethical or conflict of interest issue involving the CEO, and the CEO shall resolve any ethical or conflict of interest issue involving any other officer of the corporation and inform the Board of his action.

12. Compensation of Board. The Governance Committee has the responsibility for recommending to the Board compensation and benefits for non-employee Directors. In discharging this duty, the Governance Committee is guided by three goals: compensation should fairly pay Directors for work required in a company of Quaker Houghton's size and scope; compensation should align Directors' interests with the long-term interests of shareholders; and the structure of the compensation should be simple, transparent and easy to understand. Employee Directors shall receive no Director compensation.

13. Director Stock Ownership. The Board believes that, in order to align the interests of the Directors and shareholders, Directors should have a significant financial stake in the corporation. Each non-employee Director is expected to accumulate and maintain ownership of at least the number of shares equal to 500% of the annual cash retainer for the applicable calendar year, divided by the average of the closing price of a share of Quaker Houghton Common Stock for the previous calendar year. Non-employee Directors who have not met the minimum requirement on the measuring date immediately preceding the retainer payment date will receive a portion of their yearly annual cash retainer in the corporation's Common Stock and have the option to increase the stock portion of the retainer in excess of the amount otherwise required. Non-employee Directors who have met the minimum requirement have the option of electing to receive payment of a percentage (up to 100%) of their annual cash retainer in the corporation's Common Stock. Employee Directors must comply with stock ownership guidelines set by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee.

14. Board Interaction with Institutional Investors, Analysts, Press and Customers. The Board believes that management should speak for the corporation. Accordingly, each Director will refer all inquiries from institutional investors, analysts, the press or customers to the CEO.

15. Succession Plan. The Board shall plan for the succession of the CEO. To assist the Board, the CEO will present an annual succession planning summary to the Board and will advise the Board of his recommendations and evaluations of potential successors. The Governance Committee will assure assessment and feedback by the Board of Directors to the CEO on the strategic leadership, development, and internal and external representation of the corporation.

16. Annual Compensation Review of Senior Management. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee shall review and approve annual performance objectives for the CEO, evaluate the CEO's performance against these objectives, and make recommendations to the Board of Directors for the CEO's annual salary based on this evaluation. The Committee shall also annually review performance and approve annual salaries for the other executive officers as proposed by the CEO. The Committee reviews for all senior executive officers the determination of annual and long-term incentive awards earned in accordance with Quaker Houghton's employee benefit plans and reports to the Board for endorsement.

17. Access to Senior Management. The Board believes that the primary and most constructive interaction with management is through the normal process of scheduled Board and Committee meetings, whether they be on regular business or special matters, at which any discussions can best be informed by the collective and varied knowledge and experience of Directors and management. The Board also recognizes, however, that matters of integrity and corporate conduct, were they to arise, may call for direct access to senior management. As is judicious under these circumstances, independent Directors are free to contact executive officers and other senior managers of the corporation without senior corporate management present.

18. Access to Independent Advisors. The Board and its Committees shall have the right at any time to retain independent outside financial, legal or other advisors.

19. Director Orientation and Ongoing Education. The corporation's General Counsel and the Chief Financial Officer are responsible for providing an orientation for new Directors, and for periodically providing materials or briefing sessions for all Directors on subjects that would assist them in discharging their duties. Each new Director shall, within six months of election to the Board, spend a day at corporate headquarters for a personal briefing by senior management on the corporation's strategic plans, its financial statements, and its key policies and practices. In addition, Directors are encouraged to undertake continuing education with respect to the responsibilities of public company directors. The corporation's General Counsel is responsible for providing access to educational opportunities during Board meetings or otherwise and will monitor Directors' continuing education on subjects relevant to Quaker Houghton, its business plan and risk profile.

20. Shareholder Communications with the Board of Directors. Any shareholder or interested party may communicate with any of our Directors, including non-management Directors, by writing to them c/o Robert T. Traub, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, 901 E. Hector Street, Conshohocken, PA 19428-2380. All communications received will be forwarded to the Governance Committee and the addressee for proper disposition. The Board does believe it is management's role to speak for Quaker Houghton and, accordingly, any such communication received will be shared with the CEO and other executive officers, as appropriate.

21. Website. These guidelines shall be posted on Quaker Houghton's website, and Quaker Houghton's annual report Form 10-K shall state that copies of these guidelines and the aforementioned charters are available on Quaker Houghton's website or in writing and that copies of the same are available to any shareholder who requests them.

Revised May 2026

Reviewed February 2026